Call for Applications

DAAD Prize for Outstanding Achievements of Foreign Students Studying at German Universities

In 2020, the German Academic Exchange Service (DAAD) will award a prize to a foreign BA or MA student or doctoral student at Martin-Luther Universität Halle-Wittenberg.

The DAAD Prize is intended to honour outstanding academic achievements and remarkable social or intercultural commitment.

In the summer semester 2020, applicants should be at least in the 2nd academic year of an undergraduate degree programme or at least in the 2nd semester of a graduate degree programme. The award can also be given to students who have already completed their studies (in December 2019 at the earliest).

The prize is endowed with a total of 1,000 EUR and awarded to one person only. Application is open to foreign students as well as to students who have graduated from Martin-Luther-Universität.¹

Applications for the prize need to be submitted to the following address by January 20th, 2020:

Martin-Luther Universität Halle-Wittenberg
International Office
06099 Halle (Saale)

Please hand in the following documents²:

- Convincing cover letter
- Curriculum Vitae
- Current academic transcript of records indicating the applicant’s grade point average
- Letter of reference from a university teacher (with assessment of academic performance and social/intercultural commitment)
- If applicable, proof of social/intercultural commitment.

The prize winner will be selected by the University Awards Committee of Martin-Luther-Universität. The award ceremony will take place in May 2020.

If you have any questions about the DAAD Prize, please contact Gritt Eisenkopf of the International Office (email: gritt.eisenkopf@international.uni-halle.de).

---

¹ Students with German school leaving certificates as well as guest and exchange students are not eligible.
² Please also send an electronic copy of the application to the following e-mail address: incoming@international.uni-halle.de.